GUY C. DODGE, Superintendent

Report of Health Officer

Again this year we had an epidemic of measles in the spring. Just how many cases is not known as no quarantine is required. Several cases of chicken-pox and mumps have been reported. Whooping-cough has also been prevalent. Few realize the importance of isolation of persons having this disease and while the State does not require a quarantine placard on houses where there are cases, children should not be allowed to attend school and should be kept entirely away from other children and not allowed to attend any public gatherings or mingle with persons who have not had the disease.

Early in the school year we had an epidemic of scarlet fever start and to date about forty cases have been reported. Most of the cases have been reported as light.

Under the supervision of the State Board of Health, a two day Dental Clinic was held at the Unitarian Vestry; Elizabeth H. Carriel, State Public Health Nurse in charge. The Clinic was sponsored by the Womans Club and Red Cross. Fifteen children attended the clinic with the following corrections being made. Twenty-seven copper cement fillings, thirty-one silver nitrate treatments, one extraction and ten cleanings.

Regular Public Health Nursing visits were made into the homes during the year by the State Public Health Nurse.

I have had no report of the usual child health conference or of a tuberculin test which have been held in former years.

Samples of water from both the village and North Charlestown supplies have been sent to the State Board of Health on an average of once in two months through the year and in nearly every instance there have been no criticisms. Milk samples from local dealers have been submitted to the State Laboratory of Hygeine a number of times during the year for analysis. There have been no complaints as to quality.

There have been a number of complaints about the deposit of animal and vegetable matter at the town dump. This is contrary to law and must be stopped. The sign placed there warning against this practice means what it says and unless it is heeded, violators will be prosecuted.

I wish to thank the doctors, milk dealers and all others who have assisted and cooperated with me during the past year.

Respectfully,

LOUIS L. COMSTOCK, Health Officer

Report of Librarian

The book and magazine circulation has been very good during the past year in spite of the fact the majority of our readers have less time for reading than ever before. Everyone seems to be doing their share in helping to win the war.

As the Etude magazine was used so little the Cosmopolitan has been substituted in its place.

We have had to discontinue sending books to North Charlestown because we could not find anyone to take charge or be responsible for them.

A set of ten books on the Photographic History of the Civil War was presented to the library by Mr. Ernest Thayer in memory of his father Rev. Francis Thayer of North Charlestown.

Other people who have donated books are; Mr. Carl Perkins, Mr. Harold Morrill, Mrs. Walter Kidder, Mrs. Frank Rayno, Miss Helen Hubbard, Miss Maud Prouty, Grace C. Spillane of Springfield Vt., and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Magazines were given by Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Arthur Haberstroh, Mrs. Sumner Raymond and Mr. Frank Hamlin.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the Charlestown School Board:

I hereby submit my twelfth annual report as your superintendent of schools.

We have had eight changes in our teaching force this year. In the Farwell School, Miss Alice Palmer has taken over the second grade in the village, and Miss Marcella Tierney has accepted a position in Massachusetts. In the village, Miss Hazel Oeschger has accepted a similar position in Claremont. Submaster Harold Morrill resigned in order to work in Springfield, Vermont. Mr. Allen Brown was called into military service. Mr. Richard Dundas accepted a position in Berlin, New Hampshire. Miss Miriam Palmer married, and Headmaster William H. Steele accepted a position with the National Youth Administration in Manchester, New Hampshire.

Miss Eleanor Rock and Miss Eleanor Richardson are teaching in the Farwell School. Miss Rock, the principal, handles the lower grades, and Miss Richardson the upper grades. Miss Minnie Smith, an experienced teacher, is in charge of the South Charlestown School.

In the village, Miss Palmer is in charge of the second grade. Mr. Waldo Streeter coming from Berlin, New Hampshire, is teaching Industrial Arts, Consumer Education, and also is the principal of the Junior High School. Miss Anna Doherty from Boston, Massachusetts is teaching all the English except the twelfth year. Miss Barbara Young, a graduate of the University of Maine, is teaching Mathematics. Mrs. Gordon Williams, teaching a half-day, is in charge of the foreign languages and Physics classes. Miss Martha Smith, a graduate of the Boston University College of Music, is in charge of the Music Department, and Principal John C. Lylis has assumed the duties of Headmaster of the High School.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER L. MASON.

Report of Acting Superintendent

To the Charlestown School Board:

I have been your acting superintendent for merely three weeks and yet in spite of that very brief period of service, I trust it will not appear presumptious in me to make a few observations at this time.

I wish first to report that I find the Charlestown schools in a very wholesome condition; the teaching is good, the morale of teachers and pupils is fine, in fact the situation as I see it reflects great credit on your superintendent Mr. Walter L. Mason and indicates a fine spirit of cooperation that exists between the school board and the citizens of Charlestown on the one hand and between the school board and the superintendent on the other.

A very casual survey of the Holden school building, however, impresses one at once with the serious problem of congestion. The fifth grade has been split up, a part being taught by the fourth grade teacher and a part being taught by the sixth grade teacher. This arrangement allows for the seating of pupils but in comparison to the other grades who have the complete services of a single teacher the educational advantages offered to the pupils in grades 4-5-6 fall far short of those offered to the pupils where there is but one grade to the teacher. This situation is so self-evident that I do not need to discuss it in all its details but I do feel it my duty to call your attention to the matter at this time.

I would, therefore, urge upon you at this time to consider the advisability of renting a room as near the present school building as possible. If that can be done, then to increase your teaching staff by one, thus providing a full-time teacher for each grade. In that event I would also suggest closing the South school and transporting those pupils to the village schools, which would partially offset the cost of the change.

I wish to express my appreciation to the board for your kindness and helpfulness to me as I have tried to pick up the reins at this critical period in the year, and to the teachers and pupils for their splendid cooperation.

I wish, too, to join with you and all the teachers and school boards of Supervisory Union No. 5 in the hope that your superintendent, Mr. Mason, may soon be fully restored to health and able again to perform his usual services.

Respectfully submitted,

WESLEY H. DOUGLASS.
Acting Superintendent of Schools.

Charlestown, N. H. February 7, 1942.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

I hereby submit my first report as headmaster of Charlestown High School.

Teaching assignments have been distributed toward a more specialized form. Each teacher is teaching his or her prepared subject thus enabling the pupils to receive the best training from each instructor's preparation. The department heads are as follows:

Headmaster John C. Lylis, Social Science
Miss Alice August, Commercial
Miss Vera Nichols, Home Economics
Miss Anne Doherty, English
Miss Barbara Young, Mathematics
Miss Martha Smith, Music
Mrs. Gordon Williams, Languages and Science
Principal Waldo Streeter, Industrial Arts

High School student activities have been confined to the interest of the scholars. This year, a student council has been organized, enabling students to partake in school events and govern certain regulations in regard to school administration. It allows the pupils to undertake this type of work, thus holding them responsible for their part in school discipline. The Student Council takes care of traffic through the school corridors and on the street. The latter has proven very beneficial due to the fact that students are not allowed to walk on roads or take chances in crossing the streets when cars are speeding by. The traffic officers have full authority to report pupils. The Council meets once a week, discusses the activities of the week and suggestions are made in regard to the welfare of their school.

Weekly assemblies are held. Each senior is held responsible for the opening prayer during the current school year. Many interesting, educational and worthwhile assembly periods have been enjoyed by pupils and faculty.

Teachers have been requested to assign enough work in order to keep the pupils busy during the school day. A busy person seldom gets into mischief.

The Industrial Arts Department, under the direction of Mr. Streeter, has done a very efficient piece of work in remodeling the shop. A tool crib and paint room have been constructed and the machine shop enlarged. The ceiling has been covered with sound-proof material to eliminate any interference in classes held above the shop room. Mr. Streeter has a well-kept and organized department.

The Commercial Department, under the capable supervision of Miss August, has a very cooperative and efficient department. Through this department the New Hampshire Tuberculosis Association was able to campaign and take in $236.34 as of February 5, 1942. It is expected that the amount will exceed $245.00 before the campaign comes to a close. This is the largest amount ever taken in in Charlestown. The Association appreciates the aid of the Commercial Department and the cooperation of the townspeople. Along with their outside work the department is more than meeting their scholastic standards.

The Home Economics Department under the supervision of Miss Vera Nichols is well organized. During the noon hour, lunches are prepared and served by Home Economics classes. The department conducted a Canning Exhibit in conjuction with the local Grange and 4-H Fair. This exhibit represented the work of the Junior High School girls, a total of 300 jars being on display.

A Home Economics Club was organized, consisting of High School Home Economics girls. The purpose of this club is to do desirable work that cannot be done during class time. Many helpful projects have been constructed during these gatherings.

The Music Department under the able direction of Miss Smith provided very enjoyable entertainment during school assemblies. The fact that the amount of studying has been increased this year, compelled some students to drop from certain musical organizations and devote their time to studying rather than to participate in extra-curricula activities. A school system as small as Charlestown's carrying a variety of musical organizations would feel this effect. Students desiring to participate in these organizations would, in all probability, have to take their studying home. However, the parents are urged to influence their children to take advantage of the music opportunities that are offered by the school.

Miss Doherty handles all English courses from the seventh grade through the eleventh. This meant reorganization of the English Department. The task was tremendous, and the results, thus far, are gratifying.

The Mathematics Department under the direction of Miss Young is well organized. This year we offer three years of Math in the High School; Algebra, Geometry and Advanced Math.

The Health Program of our school has been conducted again very efficiently by the school nurse, Mrs. Zepherine Hasham. This year Mrs. Hasham gave a thorough physical examination to every high school student. It is hoped that during the latter part of the school year, a dental clinic will be held for the elementary pupils.

I wish to thank Mr. Sayce for the help that he has given to the Senior Class during the Winter Carnival. Without his advice and assistance I am sure that the carnival would not have been as successful.

I strongly urge parents to visit the local schools, talk over their problems with the teachers, and work together for the benefit of their children. Problems are never solved by taking things for granted.

On behalf of the teachers and myself I wish to thank Superintendent W. L. Mason and the School Board for their suggestions, cooperation and official backing in all problems that came about during the current school year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. LYLIS, Headmaster

MUSIC REPORT

This report covers the school year from September 1941 through the month of January 1942. At the present time there are 116 pupils enrolled in free instrumental classes. There are 39 pupils taking piano lessons, which include from the 3rd Grade up through High School; 12 string pupils, 9 pupils taking woodwinds, 7 studying brass instruments, and 20 drum pupils.

There are 23 members in the orchestra this year who rehearse weekly for one period. This year, for the first time, the orchestra has played regularly for the Senior High Assembly which is held once a week. In the fall the orchestra also played for the Junior High Play. Although plans for the Regional Concert are still incomplete, undoubtedly a worthy representation from our Orchestra and Band will be sent after the final date has been arranged.

The Band consists of 15 members. Up until Thanksgiving, the Band rehearsed out-of-doors in good weather, practicing drills and formations. The Drum Major Class, made up of 6 girl majorettes, practiced with the Band at these times. After the vacation, their class was held separate from the regular Band practice.

In the mixed Senior High Glee Club there are 29 members. For the Christmas Assembly the Glee Club put on a special program. They sang many of the familiar old carols in four part arrangements, some with English lyrics and some in Latin and French.

At present, members of the Glee Club and others from the Senior High School are rehearsing the light Opera, H. M. S. Pinafore by Gilbert and Sullivan; to be produced sometime in early March. The principals were chosen by merit from competitive auditions held in January.

The Junior High School Glee Club is made up of 27 mixed singers who chose the course as an elective. They have sung as a group for the Junior High Assemblies and gave a special program of Christmas music and Rounds in December.

In the course in Technical Music there are 11 Senior High students registered. They use "An Approach to Harmony" by McConathy, Embs, Howes, Houser, which takes up in detail the fundamental concepts of harmony and harmonic analysis. At present they are writing simple waltzes and songs based on original melodies.

The music program in the Rural Schools is not essentially different; although the opening of the South Charlestown School necessitated a change in the Supervisor's schedule. This year, two afternoons a week are spent in rural school work, instead of one as previously. These added grades also made necessary a general shifting of music books. A new set of books were purchased for the upper grades of North Charlestown. They are "Sing Along" by Ginn and Co. The upper grades in South Charlestown are provided with "Adventures In Music" Ginn and Co; and the Second and Third Grades use Grahams "Essential Songs" American Book Company. These had been somewhat damaged by the fire, but have been re-bound in attractive orange covers.

The aim of grade school music is to help the children appreciate good music. We try to accomplish this through a study of note reading, singing songs by note, striving for good tone and interpretation and some music appreciation. In December each grade gave an informal program of Christmas carols and songs.

The New Hampshire State Music Festival will be held this year in Claremont from May 14 to 16 inclusive. The new regulations put into effect last year regarding orchestral auditions and entrance fees have not been changed. No organizations will be sent. Of course, outstanding members of the Orchestra, Band, and Glee Clubs will attend, as usual.

I wish to thank Superintendent Walter L. Mason, Headmaster John Lylis, Principal Waldo Streeter, the faculty and residents of Charlestown for their cooperation with the music department and its activities. Special mention should be made of the unusually cooperative spirit of the grade school and rural teachers, with whom the Supervisor comes in so much contact. Their helpfulness and correlation of music with daily subjects is greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTHA L. SMITH,
Supervisor of Music

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Charlestown High School Athletic Association wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all who have assisted this organization during the current season. The association wishes to extend its appreciation to Dr. O. C. Young for donating his professinal services free of charge, to the students of the Junior and Senior High School participating in Athletic Activities.

One unfavorable item that is facing the association this year is the lack of basketball referees. We were very fortunate in procuring officials this year, but in the years to come, it will become a very unfortunate condition. Many of the officials have been called into military service, thus curtailing the number of men available.

I strongly urge some of the local men, talented on that line, to take up officiating. They will be in great demand.

In the past officials were paid $5.00 per evening. The high cost of transportation plus the scarcity of officials forced us to meet the average wage of $7.00 per evening.

This year the association dropped Keene High School from its schedule due to the fact that it is a class A school and one of the strongest in the state. Next year it is hoped that at least two more large high schools will be dropped and in addition, schedule schools in our own class. Lack of reserve material is a tremendous handicap.

At this time I wish to express my appreciation to all people who have in any way assisted in making the extra-curricula activities of the school possible.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN C. LYLIS.
